Leicester Riverside Festival

Saturday 1 June 12noon – 6pm

Sunday 2 June 12noon – 5pm

Bede Park, Western Boulevard, River Soar, Castle Gardens & DMU Campus

One of Leicester's biggest free festivals celebrates its 25th Anniversary, with fun on and off the water. Activities at Bede Park, Western Boulevard, Castle Gardens, the River Soar and new for this year, the DMU Campus.

Keep an eye out for highlights on the river including colourful boats from across the region and demonstrations, and boat trips.

On land, there's plenty more to entertain the whole family and chill out to the fantastic line-up on the main stage. Food lovers can enjoy a varied choice of quality street food from around the globe and sample craft ales, lager, cocktails and much more from registered bars.

The Boulevard and Mill Lane will be lined with a market full of local, hand-crafted gifts and adorn the railings with Art on River, a gallery of local talent.

Adults and kids alike can get creative with an array of activities on the parks from arts & crafts to live theatre or sit back and enjoy the ride with the funfair. There's much more to keep everyone busy across the weekend.

St George's Day Festival

Saturday 20 April

12noon – 5pm

Old Town

As the clock strikes 12, Leicester's Cathedral bells will ring to open St George's Day Celebrations in the new location: Leicester's Old Town.

The chimes mark a day of history and heritage across the area in and around Leicester Cathedral, Leicester Guildhall and the King Richard III Visitor Centre.

Fun for all ages includes venue tours and trails, living history re-enactments, morris and maypole dancing, storytelling, outdoor theatre, arts and crafts, a medieval market, film screenings and of course knights and dragons. Join us to bring Old Town alive.

St George's Day Ale Trail

Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 April

City Centre

Follow the Ale Trail to visit some of Leicester's most historic pubs and bars each marking St George's Day weekend with a special offer.

With participating venues dating back as far as 15th century, history buffs and food and drink fanatics will all find something to entice. Which well know bar is thought to have begun life as a female prison, sharing under-ground tunnels below the city streets? Which oldest pub in Leicester houses a well in its cellar? And which pub is the namesake of an overnight inn for our very own Plantagenet King?

Scan the QR code to see all participating venues on Visit Leicester plus a link to the Loyal Free app trail:
